

Declaration of Consent upon Submission of a Dissertation in Electronic Format to the Zentralbibliothek Zürich

I hereby affirm that the dissertation has been accepted by the University of Zürich and that the electronic format corresponds to the original version in structure and content.

I confer on the Zentralbibliothek Zürich the unlimited right to store electronically and, via database, to make publicly accessible the transferred documents, including relevant data (Subject Headings, Abstracts, etc.), either through the library itself or through a third party. The Zentralbibliothek Zürich furthermore has permission to place the electronic version of the dissertation at the disposal of the Swiss National Library and also, through exchange, of other libraries.

I furthermore declare that copyright clearance has been received and that no third-party rights to this publication exist. All copyright remains with me. Therefore, this declaration does not infringe my right to publish this dissertation (especially in print form) elsewhere.

I acknowledge that the Zentralbibliothek Zürich, or its cooperating third-party firms, will continue to make my dissertation available as long as this is deemed possible and appropriate within the framework of technical development and justifiable expenditure. I agree that the Zentralbibliothek Zürich and any cooperating third-party firms may convert the dissertation into a different data format should it become necessary in the future.
